

Unclassified Students

Undergraduates: Individuals may take a class to further their own personal knowledge provided the course has no prerequisites. After completing six hours, however, students must complete the entire admissions process. All students enrolling in English or math classes must complete placement evaluation.

Graduate students: Students holding a baccalaureate degree and meeting general program entrance requirements may enroll in a maximum of 25% of the credit hours required for the master's degree.