

Placement Review

The testing staff administers basic competency tests to freshmen and transfer students who have not already met those requirements through ACT/SAT scores or equivalent credit from another college. If for whatever reason the placement review is given, the results are final, but are subject to revaluation the first day of class.

Students who need basic skills will be assigned to general studies courses designed to develop the appropriate skills.